

Seminar: Stagnant Water Bodies Pollution

November 28th, 2011
Aula Font Rius. School of Law

Seminar Coordinator:

Dr. Miquel Salgot

Dep. of Natural Products, Plant Biology and Soil Science

School of Pharmacy, UB

Organization: Water Research Institute, UB www.ub.edu/aigua

Program

16'00 - 16'15 h	Opening
16'15 - 16'45 h	Ponds for wastewater treatment Prof. Gideon Oron Ben Gurion University, Israel
16'45 - 17'15 h	Eutrophication in reservoirs and lakes Prof. Joan Armengol University of Barcelona, Spain
17'15 - 17'45 h	Oil pollution in closed water bodies Prof. Michael Kruege Montclair State University, USA
17'45 - 18'15 h	Management of ponds in golf courses Prof. Miquel Salgot University of Barcelona, Spain
18'15 - 18'30 h	Coffee-break
18'30 - 19'00 h	Legal aspects of Great Lakes pollution. A unique authority Prof. María Jesús Montoro University of Barcelona, Spain
19'00 - 19'30 h	Economic aspects of lakes and reservoirs management Prof. Amelia Díaz University of Barcelona, Spain
19'30 h	Discussion

The objectives of the seminar are:

- Exchange of experiences and knowledge from different points of view.
- The possibility to further develop an interdisciplinary work among the Institute Members, together with two external experts having experience on the subjects dealt with.
- The preparation of an Institute paper.

Water Research Institute, UB - Universitat de Barcelona