

Guide to authors

Format

Each text must be preceded by a page containing:

- Job title
- the name of the author or authors, their affiliations, address, telephone and e-mail.
- A minimum of 3 key words
- JEL codes (For the articles in Applied Economics).
- An abstract with a maximum of 200 words stating:
 - Why is this paper important for the Public Policy
 - What Implications for Public Policy have the results obtained in the article

The format of the articles and their extension is free. The Chair will place as a front page a cover of the Working Papers Collection.

Language

The Working Papers Collection will accept articles in the following languages: catalan, spanish and english.

Submission and assessment process

Authors should submit work by email to:

catedramaragall@ub.edu

The management of the Chair will decide within a week the convenience of the journal article and determine if the item is sent for external evaluation, or if it is returned to its author. In case of selection for external evaluation the Chair intends to take a decision on acceptance and publication within a period of 3 months after getting the reports, although this will depend largely on the evaluation process.

Remuneration

The Chair provides a stipend of 200 euros (gross) per article accepted for publication in the Collection of Working Papers. The remuneration is made by bank transfer. On co-authored articles, the distribution of payment between different authors will be in accordance with the proposal of the research team.

Note: The authors hold the copyrights to their papers published in the Collection of Working Papers Chair Pasqual Maragall.
