The University of Barcelona’s Faculty of Economics and Business is a leading centre in southern Europe for teaching economics, business, sociology and statistics. It was the first faculty to train economists in Catalonia, and combines the historical tradition of the UB with its strong commitment to modernity and internationalisation in recent years.

The UB is in the top 25 leading universities over 400 years old and is the only Spanish university among the 200 best universities in the world, in the most prominent international rankings. The Faculty makes an important contribution to maintaining this position.

This position was obtained because of the quality of the courses on offer and the quality of the research. The UB Business School and the UB School of Economics bring together research and international postgraduate studies in business and economics. The Faculty has an important number of groups recognised as established research groups in their field by the Government of Catalonia, with hundreds of active researchers.

The Faculty offers a wide range of quality postgraduate courses for the academic year 2018-2019. These include both university master’s degrees and Executive Education (UB-specific master’s degrees and postgraduate courses). Situated on the Barcelona Knowledge Campus (BKC) at Pedralbes, a campus of international excellence, the Faculty of Economics and Business offers the opportunity to receive excellent training, provided by academics who are experts in their fields. A wide range of university services are available to students, such as the chance to undertake professional placements.

University of Barcelona
The Faculty of Economics and Business

The University of Barcelona was founded in 1450 and is the most formidable public institution of higher education in Catalonia today, catering to the needs of the greatest number of students and delivering the broadest and most comprehensive range of courses. The UB is also the principal centre of university research in Spain and has become a European benchmark for research activity, both in terms of the number of research programmes it conducts and the excellence these have achieved.

The UB is the top university in Spain according to the prestigious QS World University Rankings and one of the few ranked among the best 200 universities in the world. It also holds a place among the top 250 world universities according to the latest edition of the ranking edited by the Times Higher Education (THE). Moreover, it is considered one of the best 300 universities in the world according to the Academic Ranking of World Universities (ARWU), also known as the Shanghai Ranking.

In the QS World University Rankings by Subject 2018, the University of Barcelona was placed 110th for social sciences and business management, the branch of knowledge in which the Faculty of Economics and Business is registered. With regard to specific disciplines, the UB is ranked 51-100 in the world for Statistics & Operational Research and Sociology; between 101-150 for Economics & Econometrics and Accounting & Finance; and between 201-250 for Business & Management Studies. The QS ranking is based on three key indicators: academic reputation, employer reputation, and citations per faculty.

Internationalisation

The University of Barcelona is involved in various international university networks, including the Coimbra Group and the League of European Research Universities (LERU), in which the UB is the only Spanish institution.

The Faculty of Economics and Business has an extensive range of international mobility agreements with other institutions, under the Erasmus programme, through bilateral agreements, the CINDA programme and BCA (with universities in the United States), as well as the general UB exchange options.

*Final resolution of SGR 2017-2019 to be published.
The University of Barcelona’s Faculty of Economics and Business offers a wide range of professional and research-oriented university master’s degrees in the fields of economics, business, statistics, sociology and interdisciplinary studies. These programmes have a strong international dimension, and some are taught entirely in English.

The aim of official university master’s degrees is to introduce a compatible system of credits, criteria and methodology with a similar duration to that of European qualifications, in order to facilitate and promote the mobility of students, and their incorporation into the European job market.

All tuition fees for the university master’s degrees are indicative and subject to approval by the Government of Catalonia. In addition, students must pay administrative fees with the enrollment. Further information about the tuition fees:

Objectives:
To train and prepare economists who wish to carry out independent research in one of the best cities in the world for study: Barcelona. The Master’s degree in Economics is particularly suitable for students who have just graduated and want to develop their analytical skills through a wide range of courses taught in English by our best researchers. As this is a two-year programme, students have the opportunity to learn very solid methodological principles, and specialise in the areas that are of most interest to them.

Career opportunities:
Students who complete the programme could enter a wide range of professional sectors, including higher education or economic consultancy. Graduates who are particularly interested in research could apply to the doctoral programme in Economics, and continue to do advanced research.

Mobility:
The degree offers students the chance to take up Erasmus mobility placements.

70% Spanish
30% English

Language of instruction

5,994 euros for students who do not currently reside in Spain and are not EU, Iceland, Norway, Liechtenstein, Switzerland, Andorra or China nationals.

Objectives:
To prepare students for professional work in the area of economics and law in relation to the provision of public services, which are also known in the European Union as services of general interest or universal services. In particular, the programme trains students to address problems related to the liberalisation of economic public services, leading to freedom of establishment and competition among service providers.

Career opportunities:
Students who complete the programme will be able to take on management and technical responsibilities in the following areas:
- Management of regulations, corporate strategy, institutional relations and general management of public and private operators who provide services of general interest.
- Directorate-generals and sectorial directorates for public and private operators who provide services related to the liberalisation of economic public services, leading to freedom of establishment and competition among service providers.
- Legal advisors for public and private operators, that promote and defend competition.

Language of instruction
- Directorates-generals and technical directorates of competition authorities.
- Supervisory and regulatory organisations, and legal advisors for public and private operators, that promote and defend competition.
- Market regulation and supervision, or authorities that deal with competition
- Directorate-generals and sectorial directorates for public and private operators who provide services, leading to freedom of establishment and competition among service providers.

55% Spanish
45% English

Language of instruction

3,952 euros for students who do not currently reside in Spain and are not EU, Iceland, Norway, Liechtenstein, Switzerland, Andorra or China nationals.

Objectives:
To provide advanced training in research skills, techniques and methods that will enable graduates to carry out studies to increase knowledge of companies and business competitiveness. Students will develop the general and specific skills required to undertake quality research tasks in public and private research centres and universities. The programme is aimed at students with an academic, professional and, above all, research interest in business.

Career opportunities:
Graduates will gain the competences and skills required to start a doctoral thesis, as the master’s degree is a training period that should be completed prior to the Doctoral programme in Business. Therefore, on completion of the master’s degree, many graduates would continue with an academic career. However, although the master’s degree does not have a professional focus, the knowledge gained by students enables them to apply for jobs with better conditions in the private sector.

85% Spanish
15% English

Language of instruction

4,920 euros for the first year (60 credits) for students who do not currently reside in Spain and are not EU, Iceland, Norway, Liechtenstein, Switzerland, Andorra or China nationals.

Objectives:
To provide professionals with solid, quantitative training in mathematics and statistics, supported by the University of Barcelona’s considerable experience in training actuaries. The UB is currently the only university in Catalonia to offer this kind of course. Actuarial studies are a fundamental requirement for joining the Catalan Association of Actuaries, and other Spanish professional associations.

Career opportunities:
Graduates in Financial and Actuarial Sciences will be experts in risk management and in uncertainty quantification. There is a high demand for these skills in banks, large companies with their own risk departments, insurance companies, brokerage firms, and other corporations that need professionals with the quantitative training required to assess risk and uncertainty. Due to their solid technical training, graduates will also be equipped to continue their studies at doctoral level.

80% Spanish
20% Catalan

Language of instruction

5,700 euros for students who do not currently reside in Spain and are not EU, Iceland, Norway, Liechtenstein, Switzerland, Andorra or China nationals.

Objectives:
To provide the practical training required to become a specialist in the fields of accounting, taxation and auditing. The course will enable graduates to use sound knowledge to effectively manage tasks associated with these areas in companies of any kind and size.

Career opportunities:
In the public sector, the skills that graduates’ gain on the master’s degree will qualify them for management posts in any area of accountancy or taxation in public entities and companies. In the private sector, the analytical and planning skills developed during the course will enable graduates to undertake highly analytical tasks with a mid-term perspective in the areas of accountancy, taxation and auditing.

Independent work is one of the most promising areas for career development in these fields: the specialised training in accountancy and taxation will give graduates the skills required to solve problems in these areas in any organisation. Students who successfully complete this specialised master’s degree will be exempt from the first stage of access to the Official Register of Accounting Auditors (ROAC), which is the starting point for the auditing profession.

Executive Education

UB-Specific Master’s Degrees

The University of Barcelona’s Faculty of Economics and Business offers a wide range of UB-specific postgraduate programmes across various disciplines. The programmes are designed for degree-holders who would like to pursue a particular specialisation or develop an area of their academic or professional skills in greater depth.

Objectives:
The main aims of this programme are to train executives in the administration and management of companies, and to improve professional careers of the new business leaders that society needs. The MBA is taught by recognised university lecturers, and active, successful professionals with extensive experience. The teaching methodology is practical, active and highly participative. The programme includes case studies, debates, tutorial sessions, expert talks and simulations. This demanding Executive MBA is divided into nine modules that lead students to draw up a successful business plan. The Executive MBA has been running for many years. In the academic year 2018-2019, the twenty-sixth edition of the programme will be offered.

Career opportunities:
The Executive MBA is designed to consolidate and enhance the professional career of its participants, who will generally be executives, managers or senior managers with an innovative, enterprising spirit. The programme will offer knowledge and skills to help participants to carry out their work at an optimum level, with a higher degree of personal satisfaction. It will also provide them with a professional network that enables them to plan for their future in terms of personal life and work, with more guarantees of success.

Study in Barcelona
Barcelona is one of the most prosperous cities in Europe and a fantastic place to live, with a sunny climate and a cosmopolitan cultural life. It is also affordable, particularly when compared to cities such as London and Paris, offering an excellent quality of life and a diverse student mix.

The University of Barcelona offers students the chance to study and undertake research at an institution that is fully integrated into the city around it. Lying on the Mediterranean coast, and with a population of over 1.5 million, Barcelona is one of the most economically, socially and culturally important cities in Europe and is characterised by its extraordinary diversity. Graduates of the UB enjoy an excellent reputation among international employers. Barcelona ranks the 8th best city in Europe for students according to the QS 2017 ranking, which combines data on universities, student population, affordability, quality of life and reputation with employers.

General advice and accommodation support
