

FASHION OR PRINT DESIGN INTERNSHIP 2020 – 21 (for 2020 Graduates only)

Hey Fashion & Print Design Graduates! Are you up for a new challenging adventure?

Are you a creative fashion or print designer with a keen interest in fashion who will graduate in 2020? At H&M we are looking for new design talent to join our paid Internship Program!

So, what does it mean to join us at our HQ in Stockholm? During your internship you will assist the fashion/print designer in one of our departments: womenswear, menswear, childrenswear, footwear & Accessories. Together with the rest of the team, you will be involved in developing collections sold worldwide in all H&M markets.

The H&M Head Office is based in Stockholm, Sweden, where we design and develop our fashion collections. You'll find a dynamic workplace where high pace and rapid changes are a natural part of our day (as well as Fika breaks, of course). Good communication skills, a flexible attitude and capacity to adapt to changes are essential.

Our internship period is 9th September 2020 – 6th March 2021

We're looking for Fashion or Print Design Graduates who:

Will graduate with a BA or MA degree in Fashion or Textile Design in 2020

Is creative and visionary with a passion for fashion

Understands the H&M target customer

For Fashion Graduates: have knowledge of pattern making, sewing and textile materials and can work well in Illustrator

For Print Graduates: have excellent colour and illustration skills as well as knowledge of printing techniques and can work in Photoshop (preferably also Illustrator)

Enjoys teamwork

Are fluent in English

What can H&M offer you?

A six months contract with the possibility to get a full-time employment if successful

A salary of 22 200 SEK/month before taxes

Additional Benefits: internal courses, fitness contribution and 25% staff discount at all the H&M-group stores and brands

Insurance during your normal working hours at H&M

Are you as excited as we are?

Great! We look forward to receiving your application in English consisting of your CV and digital portfolio! Your portfolio should show design process including mood boards/research, flat drawings, illustration & hand sketches.

Closing-date for applications is the 15th April 2020 (15th March for Non-EU Graduates)

Please note that only complete applications from 2020 graduates will be considered.

We look forward to your application!
