Monday 3 April

9:00-9:30  Registration

9:30-11:00  Gergely Csibra, Birkbeck College, London.
“Human infants’ preparedness to receive referential communicative messages.”

11:00-11:30  Coffee Break

11:30-13:00  Lori Markson, University of California, Berkeley.
“Mindreading, communication, and word learning.”

13:00-15:00  Lunch

15:00-16:30  Ruth Millikan, University of Connecticut.
“Can Children Learn Language Without Having a Representational Theory of Mind?”

16:30-17:00  Coffee Break

17:00-18:30  Kathrin Glüer-Pagin (Stockholm University) and Peter Pagin, (Stockholm University).
“Meaning Theory and Autistic Speakers”

Tuesday 4 April

9:30-11:00  Vittorio Gallese, Università degli Studi di Parma.
"Before and below Theory of Mind: Mirror neuron systems and their role in intersubjectivity".

11:00-11:30  Coffee Break

11:30-13:00  Richard Breheny, University College, London.
“Minimal Meaning”

13:00-15:00  Lunch

15:00-16:30  Barry C. Smith, Birkbeck College, London.
“Learning Words without Reading Minds”

16:30-17:00  Coffee Break

17:00-19:30  Discussion panel: Robyn Carston (University College, London), Manuel García-Carpintero (LOGOS and U. Barcelona), Josep Macià (LOGOS and U. Barcelona), Genoveva Martí (LOGOS, ICREA and U. Barcelona), François Recanati (CNRS - Institut Jean Nicod, Paris), Núria Sebastian (U. Barcelona).

20:30  Dinner