Barcelona Workshop on Reference (BW9): Unity and Individuation of Structured Propositions

DATE: 22-24 June 2015

VENUE: Seminari de filosofia, LOGOS, C/Montalegre, 6-8, Barcelona, Spain.

Co-organized by Bjørn Jespersen and Manuel García-Carpintero (LOGOS).

Confirmed speakers include:

Jeffrey King (Rutgers), ‘Naturalized propositions and fineness of grain’
Scott Soames (Southern California), ‘Cognitive propositions: objections and responses’
Peter W Hanks (Minnesota), ‘On cancellation’
Gary Ostertag (CUNY), ‘Propositions and the logical form of predication’
Peter Pagin (Stockholm), ‘Propositions vs structured meanings’
Marie Duží (VSB), ‘If structured propositions are logical procedures, then how are procedures individuated?’
Benjamin Schnieder (Hamburg), TBA
Lorraine Keller (Niagara), ‘Logical form, LF, and propositional structure’
Bjørn Jespersen (Barcelona), ‘Unities of the proposition’

There are three to five slots for additional speakers selected on the basis of the call for papers (still to be circulated) and a submitted abstract.

Scientific committee: Bjørn Jespersen, Manuel Garcia-Carpintero, additional members yet to be decided upon.

Further information will be added as it ticks in.