

10th Barcelona Workshop: Naturalistic Theories of Intentionality

01 - 02 December 2016, Barcelona

December 1st

- 9:15 Nicholas Shea (Institute of Philosophy), "Content From Directly Explanatory Correlational Information"
- 10:30 Peter Schulte (Universität Bielefeld), "Perceiving the World Outside: How to Solve the Distality Problem for Informational Teleosemantics"
- 11:45 Coffee Break
- 12:15 Patrick Butlin (University of Antwerp & Hertford College, Oxford), "The Explanatory Significance of Representation: Burge, Rescorla and Schulte on Teleosemantics"
- 13:30 Lunch
- 15:30 Rosa Cao (Stanford University), "TBA"
- 20:00 Dinner

December 2nd

- 9:15 Cailin O'Connor (University of California), "Games and Kinds"
- 10:30 Stephen Mann (Australian National University), "Natural information and naturalistic intentionality"
- 11:45 Coffee Break
- 12:15 Ulrich Stegmann (University of Aberdeen), "Animal signals, acquisition conditions and the explanation of behaviour"
- 13:30 Lunch
- 15:15 Amir Horowitz (Open University of Israel), "On the very idea of a (natural) intentional relation"
- 16:30 Coffee Break
- 17:00 David Danks (Carnegie Mellon University), "From Brain Circuits to Bridging"

Venue: Sala Gran, Facultat de Filosofia, UB (Montalegre, 6, 4th floor)

Organizers: Manolo Martinez & Marc Artiga