

Carta Informativa de Filosofía - Newsletter

If you wish to receive information about further philosophy events and activities taking place in Cataluña, please write to cartainformativafilosofia@yahoo.com

in order to subscribe to the Carta Informativa de Filosofía – a newsletter currently managed by LOGOS for the benefit of the wider philosophical community in the region.

Please note that you will need to accept the invitation to join the corresponding Yahoo Group that will be sent to your email address (after you've written to the above address and followed further instructions, if any, provided by the administrator of the newsletter).

Sometimes these invitations end up in spam folders. So please check your spam folder a few days after sending your subscription request (and after following the further instructions, if any, you've received from the administrator of the newsletter).
