Gender, Race, and Sexuality Conference in Barcelona: Issues in Philosophical Methodology – Call for Papers

Dates: 25-26 June 2012

Venue: Residència Investigadors del CSIC (c.Hospital 64, Barcelona)

The topic of the conference will include issues in connection with gender, race, and sexuality, with special attention to methodological considerations in “applied” (analytic) philosophy.

Invited Speakers

Joshua Glasgow (Sonoma State University)

Sally Haslanger (MIT)

Ed Stein (Cardozo School of Law)

Submissions

Submissions of full papers (up to 4000 words) plus 250 word abstract are invited.

Please send them in suitable form for anonymous reviewing as .pdf attachments to GRSelona@gmail.com. The closing date for submissions is 1 April 2012.

We expect to confirm which papers have been accepted by the end of April. Accommodation expenses for authors of accepted submissions will be covered; unfortunately we cannot cover travel expenses.
