

International Transdisciplinary Seminar

Law and Society

2nd edition

The New Urban Agenda and its implementation: towards a better urban governance

16, 17 and 18 October, 2017

Coordination Wellington Migliari and Alexandre Douglas Zaidan de Carvalho Supervision Juli Ponce Solé

*Faculty of Law
University of Barcelona*

Monday 16, 9:30 – 18:30

Habitat III, the New Urban Agenda and its implementation

9:30-10:30 Welcome

Dr. Juli Ponce Solé, Professor at the Administrative Law Department, Fellow of the Law School, University of Barcelona. Director of TransJus.

Dr. André Luiz Freitas Dias, Professor and Researcher at the Department of Psychology at the Universidade Federal de Minas Gerais (UFMG), Coordinator of Polos de Cidadania Programme and Cidade e Alteridade Programme.

10:30 – 11:30 h Inaugural Speech

Xavier Pons Rafols

Dean of the Faculty of Law, Professor of Public International Law, expert in Public International Law, international organizations, European Community Law, human health and food safety.

11:30 – 11:45 Coffee break

Book Presentation

11:45 – 12:15

Derecho a la vivienda y función social de la propiedad. Nuevas políticas públicas en el marco del servicio público de alojamiento

Aranzadi Thompson Reuters, Colegio de Registradores de la Propiedad, 2017

Dr. Josep Maria Moltó, Profesor Administrative Law, Faculty of Law, University of Barcelona.

&

Fernando P. Méndez, Associate Professor, Faculty of Law, University of Barcelona. Member of the Association of Property and Mercantile Registrars.

Resilient cities, right to the city, rights in the city

12:15 – 13:00

Rethinking effective planning and development control law

Robert Lewis-Lettington,

Leader, Legislation Unit. Coordinator (a.i.), Legislation, Land and Governance Branch, UN-HABITAT.

13:00 – 13:45

Resilient cities after the sustainable development goals and Habitat III: lessons from Barcelona

Dr. Barbara Pons Giner

PhD in Urban Planning by the Polytechnic University of Madrid and Master in Landscape Architecture from Harvard University's Graduate School of Design, Barcelona Regional.

13:45 – 15:30 Lunch

15:30 – 16:15

The right to the city, the right to urbanize and the right to property: perspectives and challenges for the New Urban Agenda

Dr. Marta Lora-Tamayo Vallvé

Director of the Administrative Department, Universidad Nacional de Educación a Distancia (UNED), Professor at UNED, Madrid, Spain.

The regional and metropolitan dimension of the Habitat III

16:15 – 18:30

Round Table

Sr. Josep Armengol i Tatjé

General Sub-director of the Territorial Action and Urban Habitat
General Direction of the Territorial and Urban Planning

Department of Territory and Sustainability

Dr. Mariona Tomàs.

PhD in Urban Studies. Assistant Professor, Department of Political Science, Faculty of Law, University of Barcelona. Member of the Institute of Research TransJus.

Oriol Illa

Director of International Relations and Cooperation of the Àrea Metropolitana de Barcelona (AMB).

Lia Brum

Content Curator & Latin America/Europe Liaison. Metropolis, World Association of the Major Metropolises.

Tuesday 17, 9:30 – 18:00

Urban governance. Promoting transparency, good governance and fighting against corruption

9:30 – 10:15

Securitizing protests: the right to the city and democracy

Dr. Maurício Palma Resende

PhD in Law, University of Brasília (Brazil). 2013/2014 Doctoral Exchange Programme, University of Bremen, PROBAL Scholarship Programme (DAAD/CAPES). MA in Philosophy of Law from PUC University, São Paulo. BA in Law, University of São Paulo State (Brazil).

10:15 – 11:00

Risky regulation and the future for corruption prevention

Dr. Oscar Capdeferro Villagrasa

Law and Political Sciences, LLM in Juridical Sciences. Professor at the University of Barcelona (Spain), Faculty of Law. Publications and thesis on Administrative Law, urban issues and corruption

11:00 – 11:30 Coffee Break

11:30 – 12:15

Photography and a view on good governance

PhD Candidate Sílvia Beatriz Nogueira Souza

University of La Laguna, Tenerife (Spain), Doctoral Programme in Arts and Humanities.

12:15 – 13:00

The importance of public policies, good governance and the effectiveness of human rights for homeless people on the street

PhD Candidate Ana Paula Santos Diniz

PhD Candidate of the Citizenship and Human Rights Programme, Faculty of Philosophy, University of Barcelona. Researcher of the Programa Cidade e Alteridade, Federal University of Minas Gerais (Brazil).

Urban services and technology: smart city and beyond. The role of the judiciary.

13:00 – 13:45

Patmos, politics and law: structural inequality and the judicial system in Brazil

Dr. Alexandre Douglas Zaidan de Carvalho

PhD in Law, University of Brasília (Brazil). Professor at the School of Law and Attorney at Advocacia Geral da União, University of Brasília.

13:45 – 15:30 Lunch

15:30 – 16:15

Social responsibility in the public administration: beyond accountability

PhD Candidate Chiara Ramos

Law and Political Sciences, University of Lisbon (Portugal) and La Sapienza (Italy).

16:15 – 17:00

Judicial power, right to the city and democratic participation: a case study of the "Ocupe Estelita" movement in Recife (Brazil) from judicial politics

Dr. Flávia Santiago Lima

Professor at the University of Pernambuco (FCAP/UPE, Benfica/Recife Campus) and at the Catholic University of Pernambuco (Unicap). Federal Attorney.

17:00 – 17:45

The principle of sustainable urban development, the collaborative economy and shelter

Sr. Domènec Sibina

Professor at the Administrative Law Department, Faculty of Law, University of Barcelona.

Wednesday 18, 9:30 – 14:00

The right to the city, human rights and the democracy

9:30- 10:15

The tragedy of commons and the right to the city: two hidden variables

Wellington Migliari

PhD Candidate in Law and Political Sciences, Faculty of Law, University of Barcelona (Spain).

10:15 – 10:45

The theory of commons as a legal content of the right to the city

Dr Camille Mialot

Professor of Administrative and Urban Law, SciencesPo, Paris, France. He has a PhD thesis at the University of Paris I La Sorbonne and University of Barcelona. Master in Comparative Public Law, University of Paris II Assas, SciencesPo Bordeaux, Master in Public Administration.

10:45 – 11:15 Coffee-Break

11:15 – 11:45

Right to the city, access to Justice and public budgets

Dr. Horacio Corti

Professor at the Economic Law and Business Department, Fellow of the Law School, University of Buenos Aires. He is also a public defender of the City of Buenos Aires.

11:45 – 12:15

The human right to environment and the right to the city

Dr. Alex Peñalver i Cabré

Professor at the Administrative Law Department, University of Barcelona.
Coordinator of the Clínica Jurídica Ambiental (Dret al Dret) and Researcher of the Observatori de Dret Públic, IDP.

12:15 – 12:45 Joint Debate

12:45 – 13:00 Short Break

13:00 – 14:00

Joan Clos

Closing Solemn Speech for the Seminar Law & Society II

Director of the Programme Habitat III, United Nations

For registration, please, send us your data using the link below

https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLSeHyuAblMgUZIWsqx0EoWb_0-PSYUjI7nikM1i0q_qcflgfw/viewform