

Karolinska Institutet Prize for Research in Medical Education 2012

Professor Cees van der Vleuten

Professor Cees van der Vleuten is awarded the Prize for his significant contributions to research in medical education, especially regarding the improvement of the assessment of professional competence and the rational use of assessment practices, as well as for his outstanding research mentorship.

Karolinska Institutet, in association with AMEE, the Association for Medical Education in Europe, welcome you to a

Symposium

in honour of the 2012 Prize Recipient

Monday, October 29, 2012

13.00–17.00

Nobel Forum lecture hall

Karolinska Institutet, Nobels väg 5, 171 77 Stockholm

The 2012 Prize winner will hold a keynote address followed by two previous Prize winners, Professors Ronald Harden (2006) and Henk Schmidt (2004). At the end of the presentations, the audience is welcome to join a celebration together with the Prize winners. Finger food will be served.

Participation is free, but the number of seats is limited. Please register by sending an email to birgit.ekroth@ki.se by October 19, 2012.

The symposium will be streamed live on the internet on the following address ki.se/kiprime/live

Welcome!

Professor Harriet Wallberg-Henriksson, KI President, Professor Jan-Olov Höög, KI Dean of Higher Education, Professor Sari Ponzer, Chair of the KI Prize Committee

Karolinska
Institutet