REED COLLEGE LANGUAGE SCHOLARS PROGRAM - 2023-2024 ACADEMIC YEAR

As a Spanish Language Scholar, your primary affiliation with Reed College will be as a staff member; however, you will have responsibilities as both a student and educator. Your responsibilities include the following, not to exceed 25 hours per week for areas (1) and (2) combined:

1. as a Teaching Assistant

- Support language learning in various classes and conversation groups.
- Assist faculty in grading language assignments and students with readings and discussion of designated texts.
- Provide tutoring on language skills.
- Organize and participate in extracurricular activities with students.
- Conduct weekly conversation classes.

2. as a Language House staff member

- Partner with the House Advisor (HA) to develop a lively educational environment conducive to the study of your language and culture in the House.
- Organize cultural events in the Language House (weekly or biweekly), in collaboration with the HA, and on-campus (once per semester).

3. as a Student

- Must enroll in one course of your choice each semester. (The college will waive tuition and fees. You will enroll in your Fall semester course during Orientation.)

In the Language House, you will be supported by the Residence Life team, the Director of Residence Life, an Area Coordinator, and a House Advisor. The House Advisor is an upper-level student who will help you establish and maintain an educational environment in the house and assist with cultural event planning.

2023-24 FUNDING FOR LANGUAGE SCHOLARS PROGRAM

Stipend: The college will pay you a total of $8,900.00 for this position, to be paid in stipends of $468.42 twice monthly.

Housing: You will be assigned a private room in a Language House (dorm) on campus

Board: You will receive board plan B for all of your meals on campus.

Insurance: You will receive a health insurance policy so that you will have access to on-campus and off-campus medical care.

Computer: You will also be assigned a laptop and printer to use.

Visa: The college will pay the cost of the J-1 visa fees (DS-2019, and DS-160 fees)

Travel: The college will pay the cost of round-trip travel to and from the United States.
