

Centered Content & Communication Workshop

Barcelona, 31 May - 2 June, 2012.

Thursday, 31 May

9:00-10:30 Emar Maier, "Parasitic Attitudes"

10:30-10:45 Coffee break

10:45-12:15 Dilip Ninan, "Counterfactual Attitudes and Multi-Centered Worlds"

12:15-14:15 Lunch

14:15-15:45 Maite Ezcurdia and Carla Merino, "De Se Thoughts and Names"

15:45-16:00 Coffee break

16:00-17:30 Francois Recanati, "Indexical Thought : The Communication Problem"

Friday, 1 June

09:00-10:30 Michael Nelson, "Time and Person in Thought"

10:30-10:45 Coffee break

10:45-12:15 Kathrin Glüer, "Is the Content of Perceptual Experience Centered?"

12:15-13:45 Robin Jeshion, "Descriptivism and the Representation of Spatial Location"

13:45-15:45 Lunch

15:45-17:15 Brian Ball, "On Centered Worlds and the Semantics of Attitude Ascriptions"

17:15-17:30 Coffee break

17:30-19:00 Peter Pagin, "Communicative Success and Indexicals"

20:30 Workshop dinner

Saturday, 2 June

9:30-11:00 Clas Weber, "Centered Communication"

11:00-11:30 Coffee break

11:30-13:00 Dirk Kinderman, "Varieties of Centering and the Common Ground"

13:00-15:00 Lunch

15:00-16:30 Isidora Stojanovic, "Speaking of Oneself"

Organized by Manuel García-Carpintero (U. of Barcelona) and Stephan Torre (U. of Barcelona), under the auspices of LOGOS (Logic, Language and Cognition Research Group) & PERSP (Philosophy of Perspectival Thoughts and Facts research project).

Venue: Residència Investigadors del CSIC. C/Hospital 64, 08001, Barcelona