Exceptional curves on smooth rational surfaces

Mustapha Lahyane

Abstract: The aim is to give, under the assumption that the canonical class is of self-intersection zero, a characterization of smooth rational surfaces which have a finite number of (-1)-curves, and consequently those having a polyhedral cone of curves. The ground field is assumed to be the field of complex numbers.