Monodromy of algebraic curves

Pietro Pirola

We will discuss some classical and new results on the monodromy of algebraic curves and on the Galois theory of algebraic complex function fields. In particular we will analyze the geometry related with the alternating group and present a refinement of the "uniform position principle".