Algebraic spaces and other scheme quotients

Roy Skjelnes

KTH Estocolmo

Algebraic spaces are a class of sheaves in the etale site. I will discuss what happens when you consider sheaf quotients in other sites, and in particular which properties the algebraic spaces have that distinguish them from other sheaf quotients. If time permits I will discuss applications to geometric invariant theory.