

XV TALLER D'INVESTIGACIÓ EN FILOSOFIA

UNIVERSITAT DE VALÈNCIA, JANUARY 2013

Call for papers

This call is addressed to graduate students and doctors in philosophy who finished their PhDs during the last 3 years. Submitted papers should address some philosophical issue and be written in English, Catalan or Spanish. There is no restriction regarding topics or areas in philosophy.

Every paper accepted will be presented at the workshop (45 minutes) followed by critical comments (15 minutes) and an open discussion (30 minutes). Those interested can take part in the workshop as speakers and/or as commentators.

Speakers

Every applicant should send an extended abstract of 2000 to 2500 words sketching the claims defended in the paper and the arguments provided in their support to <15tif2013@gmail.com>. To ensure blind refereeing, they should send their personal data -full name, e-mail address, title of their contribution, name of the university to which they belong and short CV- in a separate document.

Every paper will be evaluated by two members of the scientific committee, and the final selection will be made by the organizing committee.

Commentators

Those interested in elaborating a comment should send their personal data to <15tif2013@gmail.com>, together with a description of the main areas attracting their interest.

Deadlines

Papers can be submitted until the 23rd October 2012, and applicants will receive an answer by the 15th November 2012. Final versions should be sent before the 15th December 2012.

Organizers

The XV TIF is organized by Claudia Compte and Carmen Santander, and supported by the Spanish Ministry of Economy and Competivity (Consolider-Ingenio CSD2009-00056) the department of Metaphysics and Theory of Knowledge and the department of Logic and Philosophy of Science; with the collaboration of the Facultat de Filosofia i Ciències de l'Educació of the University of Valencia.
