

AIX-EN-PROVENCE, FRANCE
> JUNE 23-25, 2014

The thirteenth edition of the Journées Louis-André Gérard-Varet, Conference in Public Economics will take place in Aix en Provence (France)

> June 23-25, 2014

Launched in 2002, this yearly conference aims at encouraging production and diffusion of high quality research in public economics, with a special emphasis toward results that clearly contribute to shed light on various aspects of "real world" public decision making. In this sense, this conference is in the spirit of the project of developing the Institut d'Economie Publique (IDEP) to which Louis-André Gérard -Varet devoted the last years of his life.

The Journées Louis-André Gérard-Varet are open to all fields of public economics, both applied and theoretical. Are especially (but not exclusively) requested papers in the following categories of topics:

Taxation (including transfers, social security, etc.)

Local Public Economics and Geographical Economics

Fiscal Federalism

Provision of Public Goods

Externalities

Political Economy

Auctions and Public Markets

Regulation of Firms

Law and Economics

Environment

Health Economics

Education

Normative Foundation of Public Intervention and Social Choice

Economic Inequalities

Macroeconomic Policy and Growth

Local Organization/Communication

The program will as usual consist in both contributed papers and three keynote lectures. The three keynote lectures will be given this year by

Prof. Douglas Bernheim, Stanford University,

Prof. Richard Blundell, University College London and Institute for Fiscal Studies,

Prof. Martin Hellwig, Max Planck Institute for Research on Collective Goods.

The contributed papers will be selected out of the submissions received. These submissions, which should at least take the form of a four pages abstract or, much preferably, of a version of the complete paper, must be received no later than

March 15, 2014 by the scientific committee.

A decision will be communicated to submitters no later than April 11, 2014.

May 11, 2014 Registration deadline for presenters.

Submissions may be uploaded on the website
