CALL FOR APPLICATIONS ERASMUS+ KA107 SCHOLARSHIPS FOR INCOMING MOBILITY FROM PARTNER COUNTRIES

The University of Barcelona under the framework of the Erasmus+ project (KA107) 2017-1-ES01-KA107-036426 between programme institutions and partner institutions has been awarded with scholarships for student and staff from our partner countries. Accordingly, the University of Barcelona announces a Call for applications for awarding financial supports to individual incoming student, teaching and non-teaching staff mobilities from higher education institutions from partner countries, the objective of which is teaching or training at the University of Barcelona. All incoming activities supported within this call are coordinated and administered by the University of Barcelona.

1. PURPOSE

This programme is established by the European Commission and National Agencies of Programme countries are responsible for its execution as indirect management. The Spanish Service for Internationalization of Education (SEPIE) is the Spanish National Agency for the management, dissemination, promotion and impact studies of the Erasmus+ programme in the field of education and training (2014-2020). SEPIE performs the tasks of budget implementation, promote and implement the programme at national level and act as link between the European Commission and the participating organizations.

Learning mobility opportunities aim to encourage the mobility of students, staff between programme and partner countries. Programme countries are those that are member states of the European Union and 6 non-EU countries¹ and partner countries are those which are not part of the EU but which take part as partner of the programme country.

The main purposes of this call are:

- study periods: this activity allows students from the partner institutions listed below to follow a credit mobility at the University of Barcelona;
- teaching periods: this activity allows teaching staff from partner institutions listed below to teach at the University of Barcelona.
- training periods: this activity allows teaching staff from partner institutions listed below to attend a training activity (addressed to teachers) at the University of Barcelona.

¹ Non-EU programme countries: former Yugoslav, Republic of Macedonia, Iceland, Liechtenstein, Norway and Turkey. According to the Programme Guide of the Erasmus+:

Barcelona, September 27th 2018

Against this decision, which exhausts administrative proceedings, and irrespective of its immediately enforceability, interested parties may choose to open contentious administrative proceedings through the Contentious-Administrative Court of Barcelona, as provided for in Article 8 of Law 29/1998, of 13 July, on appeals and complaints against public bodies. Proceedings may be opened up to two months after announcement of the decision in question, in accordance with the provisions made in Article 46 of Law 29/1998. Notwithstanding, interested parties may also choose to lodge an internal appeal, within one month from the day after notification of the decision, in accordance with the provisions established in Article 123 et. seq. of Law 39/2015, of 1 October, on common administrative procedure of public administrations. In this case, contentious administrative proceedings may not be opened until such time as the internal appeal has been expressly or implicitly resolved. Interested parties may also lodge any other type of appeal they deem appropriate in legitimate defence of their rights.
