

Workshop on Economics of Ageing

Call for papers

April 17, 2026

Universitat de Barcelona

We are pleased to announce the Workshop on Economics of Ageing, an event dedicated to advancing research at the intersection of ageing, health economics, and health policy. The workshop aims to bring together researchers, policymakers, and practitioners to discuss the economic dimensions of ageing, including long-term care, care pathways, multimorbidity, frailty, and other related topics.

Focus and Scope

The workshop provides a unique platform for researchers working on the economics of ageing and related areas, including (but not limited to):

- Long-term care financing and delivery
- Ageing, frailty, and multimorbidity
- Health and social care integration
- Productivity, workforce, and ageing
- Equity and efficiency in healthcare for older adults
- Informal care and intergenerational transfers
- Evaluation of ageing-related health policies
- Technological innovation and ageing

Keynote Speaker

Prof. Andrew Street, London School of Economics and Political Science (LSE).
