Montserrat Pareja-Eastaway, Ph.D. in Applied Economics from the Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona, is Associate Professor of the Department of Economics at the University of Barcelona. Since 1992, professor Pareja-Eastaway devotes her research to the analysis of urban problems and in particular, its impact on social, cultural and economic aspects. Multidisciplinary and comparative analyses are constant in her career together with her participation in professional projects in collaboration with public and / or private bodies, beyond academic research.

She coordinated the research project CREAURBS 'Creativity and Knowledge: new basis for urban competitiveness' (2010-2012) funded by the Spanish Ministry of Economics and Competitiveness and she was the main responsible of the project INNOVA 'Innovation, creativity and culture: defining the foundations for a post-crisis Spain' (2013-2015) also funded by the Spanish Ministry which involved the University of Valencia and the University of Lleida. She currently leads the competitive coordinated project CREASPACE (2016-2020) funded by the Spanish Ministry of Economics and Competitiveness, 'The three T's of spaces of collaboration: Trajectory, Temporality, Territoriality' together with the University of the Basque Country. She also participates in the European funded project Be SpectACTIVE! in the Spanish team coordinated by Dr. Lluís Bonet.

Among others, she has participated in three projects funded by different Framework Programs of the European Union as principal investigator of the Spanish team and will be leading a fourth one from February 2019 on:

- SOCOHO 'The Importance of housing systems in safeguarding social cohesion' (2000-2003). 5th FP.
- RESTATE 'Restructuring Large-scale Housing Estates in European Cities: Good Practices and New Visions for Sustainable Neighbourhoods and Cities' (2003-2006) .5th FP.

- ACRE 'Accommodating Creative Knowledge - Competitiveness of European Metropolitan Regions Within the Enlarged Union' (2007-2010). 6th FP.
- CICERONE 'Creative Industries Cultural Economy Production Network' (2019-2022) H2020
- SPOT 'Social and innovative Platform On cultural Tourism and its potential towards deepening Europeanisation' (2020-2022) H2020

She has directed three cooperation projects participated by the University of Barcelona and the Faculty of Architecture of the University of Chile funded by AECI (Spanish Agency for International Cooperation).

- 'Building networks: research and analysis on housing'. LANHUR Project. Latin American Network for Housing and Urban Research (2008)
- 'Renewal of neighbourhoods in Chile and Spain: analysis of the processes of intervention and evaluation' I and II (2008 and 2009)

Since 2018, she is a member of the Editorial Board of the 'Journal of Housing and the Built Environment'. Springer. ISSN: 1566-4910 (Print) 1573-7772 (Online).

TEACHING

She has lectured in many Universities such as University of Bicocca (Milano, Italy), Universidad Autónoma de Madrid and Universidad Politècnica de Catalunya (Spain), Universitat Politècnica de Catalunya (Barcelona), HEC (Montréal, Canada), Adam Mickiewicz University (Poznań, Poland), Warsaw School of Economics (Poland), City University of Hong Kong, Universidad de la República de Uruguay, Universidad de Chile, University of Birmingham (UK), HEI, une école d'Yncréa Hauts-de-France in Lille, and Burgundy School of Business (BSB) in Dijon, among others.
