- ② Comprehensive Academic Knowledge and Skill (Maximum Score: 100 points).

Applicants will make a presentation to the assessment expert panel of the Huangpu Institute in the test of Comprehensive Academic Knowledge and Skill. The presentation should focus on scientific research experiences and achievements, understandings and viewpoints regarding the area of study, and plans for future study and research.

(4) Admissions

- ① Applicants who successfully past eligibility review in line with the national admissions regulations and achieved satisfactory scores in each subject of the assessment tests will be ranked according to their total scores, and the preliminary admission list will be determined based on the applicants' rankings. The screening is conducted by the principles of "fully assessing ethic quality, academic knowledge and physical fitness, prioritizing excellence, and guaranteeing high quality". This step is usually completed in June.

② UCASS Admission Letter, Visa Application for Study in China, and relevant materials will be posted to the student. No further notice will be made to those who are not admitted.

(5) Access to Information

Admissions Guide, List of Majors, admissions updates and other relevant information will be released on the UCASS official website (www.ucass.edu.cn/en).

6. Visa, Registration and Insurance

Admitted international students will apply for a student visa at Chinese embassy or consulate with the UCASS Admission Letter, Visa Application for Study in China (original "JW202" form), and the Foreigner Physical Examination Form. Please keep the original admission letter and JW202 form for applying for residence permit after the entry of China.

Admitted students must go through the admission and registration procedures in strict accordance with the time and place specified in the admission letter. The original Foreigner Physical Examination Form and Blood Test Report will be checked by the Registrar. Those who can't register as required should get permission in advance.

The Ministry of Education of China stipulates that all international students must have a medical insurance throughout the period of their study in China. International students of UCASS are required to purchase the Comprehensive Medical Insurance for Foreigners staying in China on the day of registration. Students who do not purchase the insurance as required will not be allowed to register. The insurance premium is 800 RMB/year (please refer to www.lxbx.net for details).

7. Length and Mode of Study

The regular study period of the doctoral degree programs is four years, during which students study full-time in the Huangpu Institute. If students get to obtain all required credits ahead of schedule, meet the related regulations of the Huangpu Institute and pass the dissertation defense, they may be allowed to graduate one year earlier. Those who have completed 4 years of study but have not met the graduation requirements can apply for extension of study for up to 2 years.

8. Assistantships, Scholarship and Tuition

(1) UCASS provides “Three Assistantships” as a source of stipend, which offers assistance to qualified students with spare time in exchange for their teaching, research and service efforts to the University.

(2) According to the relevant regulations, UCASS provides scholarships for international doctoral students who have good conduct and excellent academic performance.

(3) Tuition

The admitted international doctoral students should pay a tuition fee of RMB 30,000 per academic year.

9. Accommodation

The Huangpu Institute provides single-room accommodations for international students. To reserve a room, students should submit accommodation applications in advance. Room rent and miscellaneous fees are in line with the relevant UCASS standards of student accommodation fees.

10. Graduation and Degree Awarding

Students who have fulfilled all the requirements stipulated in the cultivation plan, including having completed all the courses with good scores and passing the dissertation defense in English, are permitted to graduate. After being examined and approved by the UCASS Academic Degree Assessment Committee of the university, the corresponding academic degree will be conferred.

11. Other Matters

1. Students can find detailed information on the Huangpu Institute, such as teaching curriculum, faculty, and cultivation plan, by contacting us through phone or email, which is listed in Article 12.

2. International students are not allowed to be enrolled in two or more universities at the same time in China.

3. Necessary adjustments to this guide may be made and publicized due to the unexpected changes of COVID-19 control and prevention policies and other essential factors in 2021.
