Gorenstein liaison of projective varieties

R. Hartshorne

While liaison (linkage) has been used in algebraic geometry and commutative algebra for some time, defined using complete intersection subschemes, the newer notion of Gorenstein liaison shows considerable promise and raises interesting questions. In this talk I will discuss some open problems and new results in this rapidly developing field.